

General settings

You can select the interface language (Russian, English, Polish, Latvian) and also select the presenter's additional button feature. In this menu, you can also load settings if you accidentally changed something.

A screenshot of a software settings menu titled "General settings" with a back arrow icon. It contains two dropdown menus: "Interface language" set to "English" and "Presenter's additional button feature" set to "None". At the bottom are two buttons: "Save settings..." and "Load computer settings".
