YouTube streams

Step 1.
First, you need to go to YouTube (https://youtube.com)
Step 2.
Sign in using the profile you want to use for the stream.
Step 3.
Go to the YouTube Creator Studio (https://studio.youtube.com)
Step 4.
In the top right corner there is a “Create” button.
Here, select “Go live”
Step 5.
After you have selected “Go live”, YouTube will ask you to choose when you want to start streaming: Now or Later. Select the one you require.
Step 6.
You need to copy the KEY and URL indicated by the green numbers 1 and 2.
Step 7.
In Jalinga, go to Settings – Streaming and recording – Turn on stream and paste in the URL and KEY.
Step 8.
After you have pasted the URL and KEY, in the main menu the “Start recording” button will be renamed “Start recording and stream”. As soon as you click it, a stream will start automatically on YouTube.
